

POLITICAL FORCES OF MISSISSIPPI READY FOR CLASH

Senator Harrison to Defend Wilson's Administration and Will Fight to Control Delegation to Convention.

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 19. (Sp.)—Some quiet talk is being indulged in among members of the legislature concerning the personnel of Mississippi's delegation to the Democratic national convention at St. Louis, Mo., and the coming fight between the Vardaman and anti-Vardaman factions on the question of endorsing President Wilson, policies of the administration, the peace treaty and the league of nations.

Senator Pat Harrison, now recognized as the active leader of the anti-Vardaman forces since Senator Williams reiterated his determination to retire from the senate in 1937, has thrown down the gauntlet to the Vardaman forces, and will return home in time to wage an aggressive fight to send a strictly administration delegation to the San Francisco convention.

The followers of Senator Harrison find the same war about it, and are eager for the fight. Some of them are even willing to narrow the issue by proclaiming that no man who is unwilling to give a vote of endorsement to the president and the policies of the administration is a good Democrat and his name should not be considered for a place on the delegation.

Much speculation is rife as to how this is going to effect Gov. Russell, whose political alliance with the Vardaman forces is even closer than it was prior to his election. In a recent interview with a New York Times correspondent, Gov. Russell, while not openly criticizing the president, expressed the opinion that Mr. Wilson has lost strength in the state, and it is no secret that he has never been in full sympathy with the administration. It has been a time honored custom for the Democratic state convention to place the governor on the delegation as one of the four members from the state-at-large, but if Gov. Russell is unwilling to give open endorsement to President Wilson, it is certain that a fight will be made to prevent him from being named as one of the delegates.

All in all, it looks like the gathering to be held in Jackson during the latter part of May or first week of June is going to be a mighty lively affair, and it will definitely determine whether ex-Senator Vardaman has regained his political hold on the people of the state.

Careless Shampooing
Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Multified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Deschanel Urges Telling Financial Crisis Plainly
PARIS, Feb. 19.—Paul Deschanel, France's new president, in his message to the senate and chamber of deputies this afternoon, laid stress upon the necessity of making plain the country's situation to the people and the duty of her own citizens to give in return their full share of economic support to the nation.

"Our first duty is to establish clearly before the country our diplomatic, military, economic and financial situation," he said.

Later, in referring to the duties of the citizens, the president declared: "The Frenchman who shirks the payment of his share of taxation commits an act analogous to that of a soldier who deserts his trench or flees the battlefield."

Referring to the situation in Russia, President Deschanel said: "The Russian people fought on our side for three years for liberty. May that people soon be master of itself and resume its civilizing mission in the magnitude of its genius."
